

Closing on another year,
Addressing those dear
More rushed than ever we fear.

Two kids in Kung-fu,
Tapping the piano too,
Still believe Mandarin is cool.

Lay-off fears, Joe calls India time
Teens to teach, go, Dorian's fine
Biking, scouts: life's complex design

Camping around Great Lakes
Seeing kin for our sake.
The bugs, which we found, were fake.

Sailing cats in Belize
In hurricane's breeze
We'll do it again, if you please.

This note, short and sweet,
Is hardly complete.
From Joe, Dori, Ari and Pete.
